

Volunteering at Bal Sansar

It is believed that to achieve the overall development agenda, empowering and motivating youth (i.e. people in their best energetic age and spirits) to be part of the national growth process is most critical. Many parts and population groups in our country struggle with developmental issues adverse socio-economic conditions more than the others. There is a felt need for integration of public, private and community efforts to achieve key development agenda ensuring basic education, healthcare services and civil amenities to lead a life with dignity. We in Bal Sansar believe in wider sharing of diverse experiences, professionals skills, best practices locally and globally, and the missionary spirits of helping each other; key development problems can be better dealt jointly and efficiently.
